Welcome Week Wayfinding 2025 – Volunteers Needed!

Lehigh Carbon Communi

Please consider volunteering for the Wayfinding Program, which is part of the Welcome Week events for new and returning students!

As a Wayfinder, you will be greeting students, answering questions, providing directions to classes and campus services. There will be a welcome tent set-up in the mall area in front of the Student Union. We are looking for one or two volunteers per shift.

We will have resources on hand to help you best serve our students and answer their questions. We will also be distributing student planners, pens, maps, and of course, LCCC giveaways!  Most importantly, students will have a quick point of contact to help ease the stress and uncertainty of the first week of classes. There will be lots of festivities each day: a “game of the day,” a DJ, snow cones served on Monday and Tuesday, hot dogs served on Wednesday and Thursday, and free water each day!

As an incentive and thank you to our dedicated volunteers, each person that signs up for two shifts will receive a voucher to be able to make an LCCC tye-dye t-shirt the week of Sept. 15!

To see the full schedule and sign up, click here (simply type your first and last name in the time slot(s) in which you’d like to volunteer). All questions can be directed to Daniel Melin, Director of Student Life, at dmelin@lccc.edu. Thank you for your participation in this program, and best wishes for the fall semester!

If you dial 911 inadvertently, let the dispatcher know it is a misdial and also let Public Safety know (we will be calling and visiting you to verify).

If you have any questions, please contact Eric in Public Safety
