ANNOUNCEMENTS

College Voice Update

Beginning Thursday, October 9, the College Voice will move to a more or less weekly schedule.

Instead of running twice a week, the College Voice will now be published weekly, on Thursdays, beginning at 12:00 noon.

As you can see on your screen, please keep this new schedule in mind. We encourage you to adjust your Deadlines and submit forms accordingly so your content can be included in the College Voice.

We appreciate your understanding and support as we streamline communications and continue keeping our college community informed and connected.

What Were You Wearing?

Join us for What Were You Wearing? a powerful and thought-provoking presentation that explores the impact of sexual assault on college campuses through accessible yet poignant storytelling. This interactive, recognized installation gives voice to those impacted by sexual assault and confronts the stigma surrounding survivorship.

Free public and by appointment from October 6 to October 10 in the Blue Bear Gallery.

Opening Night Reception: October 6 5:00-6:00 PM

Be among the first to experience this artistic and concrete self-community-based exhibition of sexual assault in our community.

This event is part of LCCC's Go Go Go initiative, which raises awareness and fosters a culture of respect and consent across our campus community.

Food Trucks continue to be a success!

This week, students, faculty, and staff enjoyed a delicious lunch from Puerto Rico Food Truck on February 19. The weather was perfect, and students and staff were out and about on the campus. The atmosphere on campus was warm and welcoming as everyone shared a bite from Puerto Rico! Lehigh. If you weren't able to grab a plate this time, don't worry. La Fritanera will be back on campus on March 19 for a delicious lunch!

Check out the week's visit from PPG Food Truck on Tuesday, 11:00 – 2:00 p.m. in the mall outside of the Student Services Center.
