

DUAL ADMISSION INTENT FORM
LEHIGH CARBON COMMUNITY COLLEGE AND TEMPLE UNIVERSITY

Complete and return this form to:
LCCC Advising Center, SSC 124, Schnecksville

Lehigh Carbon Community College (LCCC) and Temple University of the Commonwealth System of Higher Education (Temple) enter into this Dual Admission Agreement. Students admitted into an eligible Associate degree program at LCCC will be admitted into a Bachelor's degree program at Temple on the condition that they: Complete a "Dual Admission Intent Form" at the time of admission to LCCC or before the completion of 30 college level credits at LCCC or any other institution, graduate from LCCC with a minimum G.P.A. of 2.3, enroll at Temple within one year of LCCC graduation, do not attend another institution of higher education between the time they graduate from LCCC and enroll at Temple, and satisfy all other regular Temple admissions requirements.

By satisfying the conditions of the Dual Admissions Agreement, Temple University will do the following:

1. Waive the admission application fee
2. Award academic scholarships to LCCC students who graduate with a 3.3 GPA or higher
3. Provide the LCCC student with the opportunity to meet with a Temple representative for assistance with transferring to Temple (prior to graduating from LCCC)

You, the student, may void this agreement at any time with written notification to LCCC and Temple. Former Temple students are not eligible for this program.

Please complete the following information and return this form to the LCCC Advising Center, SSC 124, Schnecksville. You will receive an acceptance letter from Temple University in the near future.
